New Group CEO at Danish Crown

Monday the 16th of November Erik Bredholt, Chairman of the Board, tried a new discipline in which he has no experience: presenting the new CEO of Danish Crown to the employees of the head office and the Chairman commented on the new CEO.

- The board has spent a long time working on finding a substitute and they chose Jais Valeur among many qualified candidates. Jais previously worked in Arla and he has been in all segments of the milk business. Now he is ready to work on something difficult, said Erik Bredholt.

Jais Valeur has a background in Arla, where he has been part of senior management with the responsibility of Global Marketing, Innovation and Production. He previously also worked at Royal Unibrew and Fonterra in New Zealand.

For the next couple of weeks Jais Valeur will be in the office in Randers, Denmark before he takes over from Kjeld Johannesen in the beginning of 2016. Until then he will have the chance to get to know the company. Kjeld Johannesen has his official last day March 31.
